

New Lexington, Ohio
October 2, 1936.

This 2nd day of October, 1936, it appearing to the Auditor of Perry County, that notice of the proposed vacation of said lots numbered - Out lot 1 and 2, Lots 1 to 30 inclusive except lots numbered 9 and 10, in the unincorporated village of Halesburg, Pike Township, Perry County, has been duly given in the New Lexington Daily News, a newspaper printed and published, and of general circulation throughout Perry County, Ohio, for a period of two consecutive weeks, commencing on the 4th day of September, 1936, and more than ten days have elapsed since the completion of said notice, and that no notice of dissent has been given said auditor, nor injunction granted against said vacation.

And it further appearing that said lots are not within the corporate limits of any village, and it appearing by the records of this office that said Ann Jenkins Vanatta et al are the owners of said lots described in said notice; Therefore this day by virtue of the power vested in me by sections 3601, 3602 and 3603 of the General Code of Ohio, I do declare said lots described in said notice vacated, and a certificate of said fact is hereby issued to Ann Jenkins Vanatta et al in conformity to said statutes.
